At Home With Montessori runs for four weeks and is offered once weekly for one and one half hour, evening sessions. Topics include:

- How to meet a child's needs for order and independence.
- How to prepare your home to match your child's needs.
- Relationships – how to identify undesirable behavior and creatively overcome it.
- How a child's learning patterns differ from an adult's.

At Home With Montessori is taught in Lincoln by Lincoln Montessori School Director Larry Verschuur or Montessori directress Mary Verschuur. Both have more than 40 years experience working with children and parents applying the Montessori philosophy.
